

CAPITAL PROJECT UPDATES

By Scott Herring
Construction & Maintenance Director

Columbia County has two funding sources for large capital projects – Special Purpose Local Option Sales Tax (SPLOST) and General Obligation (GO) bonds which were sold earlier this year. Our current 2006 – 2010 SPLOST (or 1¢ sales tax) was renewed by the voters in 2004 and has transportation, facilities, public safety, recreation, and intergovernmental projects. Last November, voters approved the GO bond referendum for additional water, transportation, recreation, and public safety projects. As you can see from the project lists below, the County has been working very hard to get these promised projects completed and usable by the citizens of the County. Please contact me at sherring@columbiacountyga.gov if you have any questions or concerns about these projects.

The State Legislature has passed and Governor Perdue has signed a bill authorizing the County to have a referendum for redevelopment using tax allocation districts and other powers under Chapter 22 of Title 36 of the O.C.G.A., the "Redevelopment Powers Law" as amended. This referendum will be on the June 19, 2007 ballot.

“Wetlands are Wonderful” Scavenger Hunts

The Reed Creek Park and Wetlands Interpretative Center is hosting “Wetlands are Wonderful” scavenger hunts. Come and explore your neighborhood wetlands and learn about the plants and creatures that live here. The scavenger hunts are tailored for school aged children who need to be accompanied by an adult.

May 12th      2 PM – 4 PM
May 19th      10 AM to noon

For more information, please contact

The Interpretative Center is currently open for educational outreach programs and tours on Tuesdays and Fridays as well as some Saturdays each month for scheduled visits or special events.

Invisible vs. Visible Fences

In 2006, Columbia County Animal Care and Control responded to over 3000 complaints from citizens concerned about stray animals in roadways and yards including situations where animals thought to be in an invisible fence were running at large. Invisible fencing has three main deficiencies:

- Failure due to collar batteries not being charged or the power to the home had failed, rendering the invisible fence ineffective.
- Failure to keep animals out of the yard. In the past, this department has responded to situations where an intruding animal has entered an invisible fence system and attacked the homeowner's dog.
- Failure to post signs about an invisible fence and having a citizen unknowingly enter a yard which led to a canine protecting its territory by attacking or acting aggressive toward the person.

Because invisible fences are not as fail-proof as a visible fence, Columbia County Animal Care and Control recommends using a conventional fence to contain your loved one. You'll be glad you did!

From the storm sewer wise guy....

I really like this warm weather! I'd like to take a minute to remind you not blow or dump your grass clippings into the storm sewer system. You may not realize it, but that yard waste can clog storm sewers and cause flooding. Now, I like water a lot, but I've heard you humans aren't too happy when it gets into your houses! Also, once yard waste washes into my creek, it releases dangerous amounts of nitrogen AND begins to use up the oxygen that my fellow aquatic critters and I need. If you see your neighbors dumping yard waste in a storm drain, please let them know that waste can clog storm sewers and harm the creeks. You could also call 706-855-7246 and let my friends at the Stormwater Utility send a friendly reminder about not dumping yard waste into the storm drain. So remember... NO yard waste in the storm sewers or the creeks!

Open Burning Ban Starts May 1

A State-mandated ban on open burning is in effect annually from May 1st through September 30th. No residential burning is allowed in Columbia County during this time. If you need to make a complaint, call the fire department.
